

Miranda

My career goal is to become a social worker or social service manager while being a proactive leader within my community. I also want to connect with the youth of my community and bring awareness to a multitude of social issues, such as suicide awareness, sexual violence, substance abuse, autism/disability recognition, and many more public health matters. I want to honor the values of my ancestors while creating support systems, beneficial programs, and opportunities for future generations.