

Richard Langdeaux Jr.

Richard Langdeaux JR is currently an alternative Science Teacher at Todd county School District. Richard was the 2016 Winter Commencement speaker at his college VCSU (<https://youtu.be/bsn6yiJ28RQ>) (37:30), at the end of his undergrad he had accomplished: 2-Time National NAIA Cross Country Contender, Resident Assistant for two years, Freshman Orientation Leader, started and was the President of the Native American Cultural Club and worked part jobs while in college. Upon graduation, he was voted VCSU Student Teacher of the year, From student teaching in Wagner Community School. Along with Teaching sciences 7-12, Richard assists with coaching Cross Country at Todd County. In the evening he coaches Archery for the Rosebud Dormitory. As of January of 2019, Richard enlisted in the South Dakota Army National Guard. He is currently attending Officer Candidate School and still wants continue to Teach, Coach Cross Country and Archery and planning on going to grad school. Richard likes to help anyone and believes serving people. He still enjoys running (numerous half marathons,5ks, and 10ks) and has qualified for the all-national guard marathon team/ He also enjoys hunting, fishing and working on his older cars. - updated 9/28/2020

